

PCH

Using lush harmonies, acoustic instrumentation and intricate arrangements, PCH brings their signature sound to some of rock's greatest songs by artists like Steely Dan, James Taylor, The Eagles, Neil Young, The Beatles, Eric Clapton, Pink Floyd, and many many more. They have been hired for private events by the Rolling Stones and Rod Stewart and continue to gain popularity with every music lover that hears their unforgettably unique sound.

DAVID BLASUCCI: *VOCALS, GUITAR, BANJO, MANDOLIN

In addition to his career as a solo artist, David spent years touring with Bobby Kimball (Toto). As an actor, you can see him as a member of the New Main Street Singers in the Christopher Guest comedy "A Mighty Wind," and playing alongside Catherine O'Hara and Parker Posey in "For Your Consideration". David has also appeared on TV shows such as Seinfeld and Mad TV, and his third solo album is scheduled for release in spring of 2009.

PAT THOMI: *LEAD GUITARS, VOCALS

Born in Switzerland, Pat came to the US to study music at Berklee and never turned back. Pat has toured with Gino Vannelli, Jean Luc Ponty and (Prince protégés) Wendy and Lisa, and has performed with many great artists including Frank Sinatra. Pat's four solo albums of brilliant guitar instrumentals have garnered rave reviews and awards from the press and music community.

TRENT STROH: *BASS GUITAR, VOCALS

A California native, Trent has been a successful studio and road musician for many years, having toured with A-list bands like Eddie Money and America. Trent has also been sought after by the recording community for some time and has become one of the top call session bassists in the Los Angeles area.

CHARLES FRICHEL: *PERCUSSION, VOCALS, BASS GUITAR

As a singer/songwriter and instrumentalist, Chazz has recorded and performed with artists such as Michael McDonald, Chuck Mangione, Wilson/Phillips, America, and Chaka Khan, to name just a few. He can also be heard singing the theme to NBC's syndicated hit sitcom "Saved By The Bell". Chazz has also had a successful solo career and currently has two CD's available, "Perfect Moment" and his latest release, "My Therapists Couch."
